

Wet & Dry Hospo Bulletin

March '23

Welcome!

If you're reading this then you're likely one of the hospitality industry's leading lights looking to make new connections, hear about upcoming opportunities or generally get on the guest list to cool shenanigans!

It's a place where we'll share news, but it's not really a newsletter ('newsletter' sounded a bit shite). Rather, think of this as your chance to glean industry insights and be among the first to hear about events, opportunities, and more...

We won't get on your tits

We know you've all got busy inboxes so we promise to keep these dispatches brief, relevant, and not too frequent.

We will spread the word on our socials when there's a new edition of the W&D Hospo Bulletin and you'll be able to download it with a click of a button from the W&D website.

Next-gen bartending

Equal Measures has just opened applications for its new 'Forming Foundations' Programme - a free three-day course in London from 24th - 26th April 2023 aimed at educating, upskilling, and inspiring the next generation of diverse, bartending superstars.

For more information about the initiative and to apply visit their website here.

Hospitality Fight Club

The first rule of Hospitality Fight Club is... to Tell everyone you know who works in the industry about Hospitality Fight Club.

Sponsored by Casa Noble Tequila, Mi Campo, and High West Whiskey, HFC is a complimentary weekly boxing workout we set up for of fellow hospitality workers.

From 10am-11am every Tuesday, we meet at Marshall Street Leisure Centre (W1F 7EL) for an hour of free fitness.

Join us! No experience or booking required.

Whisky AND Gin Live (!?)

Whisky and gin together?! Not usually. But, in their wisdom, the organisers of Whisky Live and Gin Live have decided to run both events in conjoined event spaces.

Confused?

Well, Whisky Live and Gin Live are taking place at the end of this month at Honourable Artillery Company on City Road, London. 31st March is trade-only - so you'll probably want to go then to avoid the general public!?

Kyrö sauna

One additional thing we wanted to put on your radar are the complimentary Kyrö sauna sessions happening at Hackney Wick Sauna Baths on the first Monday of every month. RSVP below to come along to the next event (Monday 3rd April).
